Cote du Py 2011 9+/10

Of the six hectares of Morgon that the English couple Sarah and James Wilding have owned since 2008, 1.5 is on the coveted Côte du Py. They show respect for this crown jewel of the Beaujolais. Creamy dark fruit, good acidity.

Les Charmes 2010 9/10

Lapierre, Breton, Foillard, Thévenet - for many years the benchmarks in Morgon, now need to take note of the English. Their Les Charmes breaks down the door of this club and they are now at the table with this pure singing Gamay. Cherries and berries with glinting minerality creates its own sunshine.

Vieilles Vignes 2011 9-/10

Beautiful, made from Gamay vines between 40 and 100 years old. Sustainably produced, aged in old wood, full and long. Delightful, fleshy softness. Cheerful with a serious undertone.
